

Conversation Starters for Home Reading

Questions to ask about tonight's book — builds comprehension through real conversation.

Name

:

Date

:

Real conversation about books builds comprehension in a natural, low-pressure way. Pick one or two questions that fit the moment — you don't need to ask them all.

Questions To Try

Before Reading

- What do you think this book will be about?
- Have you read anything else like this?
- What are you hoping happens?

During Reading

- What's happening so far?
- Who's your favourite character, and why?
- What do you think happens next?

After Reading

- What was the most interesting part?
- How did the character change?
- Would you recommend this book? Why?

Tonight's Book Log

Title:

Pages read:

Question we talked about & what my child said:

